Mrs. Calmes' Newsletter Back to school

Check out what's happening...
I am so excited to start the school year. It is always amazing to see the growth that kindergarten students make in a year! We are partners in your child's education so please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions or concerns.

Content Updates...

Reading: The Kissing Hand- we will use this story to talk about first day feelings.

Math: We will work on recognizing numbers 0-5. Students will learn several fun number songs this week and play a game with a partner.

ELA/Writing: This week we will focus on writing our first names. It is very important that your child knows how to write their first name, so if have not mastered this skill please be sure to practice this at home.

Homework Happenings...

The first homework packet will be sent home on August 29th and will be due the following Friday. Be sure to read to your child each night and discuss their school day with them.

Who who can ...

These are the "I can" statements we will be working on this week!

I can write my first name.

I can name a class rule and why it is important.

WHO can help?

I am looking for 1-2 parents that are willing to come in on a weekly basis. If you are interested, please send me an e-mail and I will send you more information!

ELA Tip: Use that down time in the car to practice rhyming words. Give your child a word and see how many rhyming words they can come up with.

Math Tip: Use sack time to practice counting and subtraction. If you had seven goldfish and ate one how many do you have left?
